

Jennifer Yee

Chief of Staff
Loring Ward

As the Chief of Staff and Administration for Loring Ward, Jennifer works closely with the executive team, cross functionally across the organization and directs and oversees the administration and facilities teams to create a positive, efficient, communicative, and organized working environment.

Prior to joining Loring Ward in 2011, Jennifer worked for a municipal fire department where she managed the training of the crews, facilities, and partnered with various agencies to conduct a multi-county officers' academy.

Jennifer graduated cum laude from San Jose State with a bachelor's degree in Liberal Studies, minoring in Special Education.

She resides in the Bay Area and is the proud parent of a college-aged son. In her spare time, Jennifer loves to volunteer, hike, and spend time outdoors with friends and family.
